

About Mrs. Frederick

Educational Background

- Bachelor of Applied Arts – Oakland University
Major: Studio Art K-12, Specialization in New Media

Professional Experience

Mrs. Frederick completed her thesis in Studio Art at Oakland University in April of 2009. Her culminating work was comprised of a three-channel video and sound art piece displayed in the Oakland University Art Gallery. Mrs. Frederick completed her student teaching experience at Rochester Adams High School and North Hill Elementary in Rochester. She was employed as a K-12 guest teacher in a variety of Oakland County districts before joining the educational team at the IAM. Mrs. Frederick's expertise includes a wide range of studio practices, both traditional and contemporary, as well as a strong background in art history. Her specialization in New Media encompasses digital imaging, digital photography, web art and design, and video art.

Mrs. Frederick is an active member of both the National Art Education Association and the Michigan Art Education Association.

Hobbies

Mrs. Frederick loves to create art. Her favorite things to do during her downtime are jewelry making, digital photography, and working with Photoshop. Additionally, her hobbies include reading, cooking, traveling, and gardening. Mrs. Frederick also loves spending time with her husband and family.