Professional Experience

Mrs. Hogg worked for the Utica School district for over 30 years, starting as a mathematics teacher and later as a counselor. When she retired from full-time work she was the Counseling Department Chairman for Utica High School. Since then, she has served as a counseling mentor and has subbed long-term as a counselor at both middle and high schools in the Utica District. Mrs. Hogg also was trained by Bill Steele to become a trauma specialist, and was named Macomb County Counselor of the Year in 2001.

Personal

Mrs. Hogg is widowed with two grown children. Her elder son lives in Royal Oak with his wife and daughter, and her younger son lives in Arizona with his wife, their cats and a dog. She is also a trained docent at the Detroit Zoo, working in the Arctic Ring of Life, the National Amphibian Conservation Center, and often leads tours of school groups around the zoo.

Hobbies

Among Mrs. Hogg's hobbies are knitting, quilting and reading. She is also an avid traveler, often traveling to Arizona to see her son. She has visited Alaska three times, spent six weeks on a tour of Europe, and gone on many cruises.
